Biography

Rabbi Itshak Abihssera

Come and fill up on Brahot and Simcha!

Rabbi Itshak Abihssera was born into a family of great spiritual renown: he was the son of Rabbi Ya'akov Abihssera, known as "Abir Ya'akov."

He was part of the dynasty of Tzadikim (righteous ones) from Toulal, Morocco, and was the uncle of Baba Salé.

At the age of 12, he composed the song 'A'oufa Echkona', which he wrote while being late to his Torah class. His father understood that this song 'was worthy' of the delay.

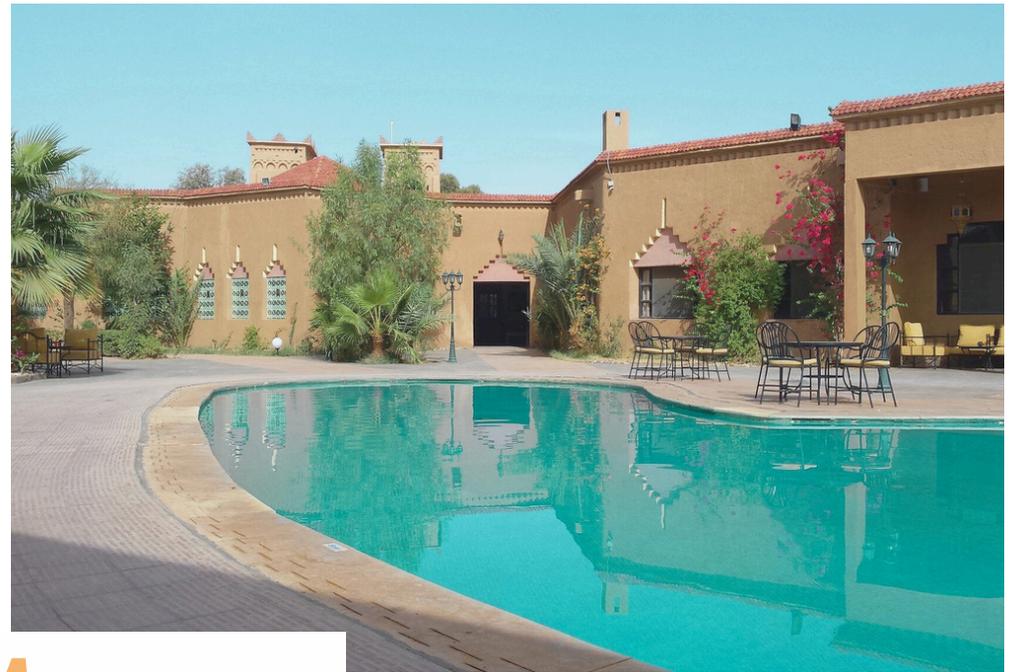

According to tradition, this song contains profound Kabbalistic secrets.
